

But you can stop that empty feeling,

of being all alone ;

Just put love in someone's life ,

You'll find love in your own.

Why do not clocks spin instead of run?

Why do not hot dogs jumps out of their buns?

Why do not people just keep on having fun?

Because everything has its place, in its place.

Its way, in its way, and its day, for its day.

Pit-a-Pat

pit - a - pat, pit - a - pat,

Fall the tiny rain drops

Splashing, oh, so lightly

On the window pane

pit - a - pat, pit - a - pat,

Hear their voices calling

'Tis a summer shower

'Tis the falling rain

pit-a-pat, pit-a-pat, drip, drip, drip

Every leaf, every brook

Bids the raindrops welcome

While the thirsty earth

With gladness drinks his fill
